

Suggested Summer Reading Activities for Grades K-4

The following activities are suggestions for the two projects to be completed during the summer and brought in the first day of school. On the projects should be in a “flat” format so that classes may decorate their walls with them. Enjoy!

- Diary: Write a diary for one of the characters telling what happened to him or her.
- Time line: Make a time line of the events of the story. Explain it.
- Comic Book: Make a comic book based on the book.
- Book Cover: Create a book cover for the story. Explain it.
- Drawings: Make a series of five drawings depicting the events in the book and an example of each on shelf paper. Make a “roll movie” of the story. Explain the story as you show it.
- Radio Advertisement: Write and tape-record a radio advertisement that will make people want to read the story.
- New Ending: Create a new ending for the story. Explain why it is better than the original.
- Poster: Create a poster advertising the book. Explain it.
- Crossword Puzzle: Construct a crossword puzzle of words and their definitions from the story.
- Poem: Write and illustrate a poem about the story.
- Newspaper: Design the front page of a newspaper with headlines and a story about what happened in the book.
- Movie Poster: Draw a movie poster advertising the story, and cast a real actor in each character’s role. Explain it.
- Interview: Write and tape-record an interview with one of the characters in the story.
- Diorama: Make a diorama of your favorite part of the story; be prepared to tell about it.
- Character sketch: Sketch a portrait of a character and write (or tell) the most important things about him/her.
- Hand Puppets: Make 2 hand puppets of the most important characters of the story. Use them to describe the main theme of the book.
- Map: Make a map of the area where the story took place. Indicate where each event occurred and be sure to include a map key.
- Clay Sculpture: Create a clay sculpture of a scene or character from the book. Be prepared to explain it.
- Mobile: Construct a mobile of important things in the story with labels explaining each of them.
- T-Shirt Design: Fashion a T-shirt advertising the book. Explain why you chose the design.
- Collage: Put together a collage of the story from magazine pictures. Describe your collage.
- Life Cycles: Study the life cycle of an animal mentioned in the story and illustrate it on paper with words and pictures.
- Letter From a Character: Write a letter from a character to the reader explaining his/her actions in the book.
- Letter to a Character: Write a letter to a character telling about your reaction to him/her in the book.
- Mask: Create a mask of one of the characters. Tell about it.
- Flannel Board Story: Create and tell about a scene from the book.
- Painting: Create and explain your painting of a scene from the story.
- Banner: Using a length of shelf paper, design a banner advertising the book.
- Letter to the Author: Write a letter to the author giving your reactions to the book.
- Fold Book: Make a fold book, writing and illustrating main events of the story. (To make a fold book, fold an 8 1/2” x 11” sheet of paper in half, then in half again. Cut along the single folds, almost to the center, making a four-page book.)
- Puzzle: Draw a scene from the story on cardboard. Cut the scene into puzzle pieces, and write a short summary on the back.
- Quiz: Make up a quiz of 10 questions about the book. Have others who read the book and take the quiz.
- On-line book reviews – Review your favorite book on the following website
<http://www.rif.org/readingplanet/expressyourself>