Dear Parents, Guardians and Students,

The Pupil Services Department at Guilford High School is pleased to invite you to Building A Bridge, a transition seminar for high school students with special needs. Guilford High School will host a variety of state-wide agencies including, The Bureau of Rehabilitation Services (BRS), The Department of Mental Health (DMHAS), The Department of Developmental Disabilities (DDS) and The Special Education Resource Center (SERC). The representatives of these agencies will bring a wealth of information as it relates to transitioning from high school to post-graduate schools, the workplace and/or community.

Date: Tuesday, November 17, 2009

Time: 6:00

Place: Guilford High School Library

Please join us in our initiative in providing our Guilford families with knowledge, direction and resources in Building the Bridge from high school to beyond.

Kindly R.S.V.P. to Pat Decesare by Tuesday, November 10, 2009.
